

BERMUDA GOVERNMENT
MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS

PATI Information Statement
2023

Name of Public Authority: REGISTRY GENERAL

Introduction:

The general purpose of the Public Access to Information Act 2010 (PATI) is to give the public the right to obtain access to information held by public authorities to the greatest extent possible, subject to exceptions that are in the public interest or for the protection of the rights of others.

Under PATI, public authorities are required to provide information statements which make information readily available to the public without the need for specific written requests. The statements are intended to encourage public authorities to proactively publish information and develop a culture of openness and transparency, which should increase public confidence.

This information statement commits the Registry General to making information available to the public as part of its normal business activities. The Department will:

- Specify the information that it holds;
- Make information that it holds routinely available;
- Describe the methods by which specific information is made available, so that it can be easily identified and accessed by members of the public;
- List any fees charged for access to information described in this statement;
- Make this information statement available to the public; and
- Regularly review and update the information made available under this statement.

The information listed in this statement is available to the public, and can be divided into seven categories:

Section B: 1) Functions, powers, duties of the Authority [s5(1)b]

The Registrar General is appointed to discharge duties conferred or imposed under the suite of Acts and Regulations listed above in the Legislation paragraph of Section A. The Registrar General reports directly to the Permanent Secretary of the Ministry of Home Affairs, who in turn reports to the Minister. The Registrar General is assisted in the exercise of the statutory functions by such public officers as may from time to time be authorized by the Legislature.

The Registry General consists of four sections, the Administration Unit; Vital and General Registrations Unit; Property, Professional and Organization Registration Unit; and Intellectual Property Registrations Unit. The three sections are required to provide reliable systems for the storage of public records in relation to their respective areas, and to facilitate access to these records.

Administration Section

The Administration Unit ensures that the infrastructure for the registration of Vital and General events, Intellectual Property rights, Trade Unions, and Professional/Organization entities is provided in accordance with the statutory functions/requirements as per the respective legislations. The unit also ensures that the administration of internal functions and the management of resources are properly navigated through the managing of monetary resources; material resources; human resources; and information resources.

- The function of the Administration Unit is to ensure that adequate resources are made available to facilitate the efficient and timely operation of the department.

Vital and General Registrations Section

The mandate of the Vital and General Registrations Section is to provide a timely and efficient service when administering Acts governing the activities of its units: Birth, Domestic Partnership, Marriage and Death Registrations; Adoptions; and Deed Polls.

- The function of the Birth, Domestic Partnership, Marriage and Death Registration Unit is to register every birth, domestic partnership, marriage and death that occurs in Bermuda or on Bermuda registered ships. The Unit also performs civil marriage and domestic partnership ceremonies.

Property, Professional and Organization Registration Section

The mandate of the Vital and General Registrations Section is to provide a timely and efficient service when administering Acts governing the activities of its units: Chattel Mortgages, Professional and Organizational Registrations.

- The function of the Chattel Mortgages, Professional and Organization Registration Unit is to register documents relating to chattel mortgages, and maintain official registers of architects, apprenticeships, professional engineers, professional surveyors, marriage officers, domestic partnership officers, charitable organizations, temporary fundraising licences, privately funded charitable trusts and foundations, friendly societies, and trade unions.

Intellectual Property Registration Section

Intellectual Property refers to creations of the mind or intellect. Creators of intellectual property seek protection to maintain an exclusive right to exploit their created works. The Intellectual Property Section facilitates the protection of intellectual property rights to an international standard, so that Bermuda remains a place where creativity and talent can thrive.

The mandate of the Intellectual Property Section is to provide a timely and efficient service with respect to Intellectual Property and other rights, such as:

- the registration of trade and service marks
- the registration of patents and industrial designs
- the provision of advice on protecting copyright and related rights
- the registration of domain names in the ".bm" country code top level domain

The role and functions of the Intellectual Property Section mirror those of the UK, US and other National IP Registries. The services provided to the public are mandated by legislation, which directs the core duties and responsibilities of the IP Section (i.e. Trade Marks Act 1974, Trade Marks and Service Marks Regulations 1993, Patents and Designs Act 1930, Government Fees (Trade Marks and Service Marks) Amendment Regulations 2010).

The website www.gov.bm provides further details and the fees charged for all services offered by the Registry General.

Section B: 2) Obligations under PATI Act [s5(1)b]

Same for all public authorities

- To provide an information statement for the public and promulgate it [s5]
- To provide other information to the public so that the public needs only to have minimum resort to the use of the Act to obtain information [s6]. This includes:
  - General information, e.g. activities of the Authority
  - Log of all information requests and their outcome
  - Quarterly expenditure (upon request) [s6(5)]
  - Contracts valued at $50,000 or more
- To respond to information requests in a timely manner [s12-16]
- To track information requests, and provide this data to the Information Commissioner
- To respond to requests from the Information Commissioner [s9]

- To amend personal information held by the Authority that it is wrong or misleading following a written request by the person to whom the information relates [s19]
- To conduct an internal review if formally requested [part 5]
- To give evidence for review by the Information Commissioner [part 6, 47(4)], or for judicial review [s49], if required
- To provide an annual written report to the Information Commissioner of the status of information requests [s58 (3)]
- To do anything else as required under the PATI Act and subsequent Regulations [s59, 60], including:
  - Fees for Requests for information
  - Management and maintenance of records
  - Procedures for administering the Act
- To train staff and make arrangements so as to facilitate compliance with the Act [s61]
- To designate one of its officers to be the person to whom requests are directed [s62]

Section C: Services and Programmes [s5(1)c]

The Acts and Regulations that are listed in the "Legislation" paragraph in Section A establish the decision making requirements for each relevant section of the Registry.

In particular, the Charities Act 2014 establishes the Registrar General as the competent authority for non-profit organizations and empowers the Registrar General to oversee the charitable sector in consultation with the Charity Commissioners. The decisions made to deny a charity's registration can be appealed to the Minister responsible for Charities. The Minister's decisions can be appealed to the Supreme Court on a point of Law.

The Copyrights and Designs Act 2004 establishes a Copyright Tribunal and the Copyright Tribunal Rules 2014 sets out the procedures and guidelines in which the Copyright Tribunal will hear and adjudicate on copyright related matters.

The Architects, Professional Engineers, and Professional Acts each establish Councils to review approve or deny their respective applications. Under these Acts, appeals are made to the Secretary to the Cabinet for a decision by the Cabinet.

Decisions and recommendations to the management and daily operations are made using the following forums and evaluation forms:

- Regular Meetings with the Registrar General
- Staff Meetings
- Annual Performance Evaluations and Mid-Year Reviews
- Annual Performance Plans and Mid-Year Reviews
- Bermuda Public Services Union Members' Meetings
