

GOVERNMENT OF BERMUDA
THE ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT DEPARTMENT

PATI Information Statement

Name of Public Authority: Economic Development Department (EDD)

Introduction:

The general purpose of the Public Access to Information (Bermuda) Act 2010 (the Act) is to:

- a) Give the public the right to obtain access to information held by public authorities to the greatest extent possible, subject to exceptions that are in the public interest or for the protection of the rights of others;
- b) Increase transparency, and eliminate unnecessary secrecy, with regard to information held by public authorities;
- c) Increase the accountability of public authorities;
- d) Inform the public about the activities of public authorities, including the manner in which they make decisions; and
- e) Have more information placed in the public domain as a matter of routine.

Every public authority is required to have an information statement under the Act. This information statement provides the public a description of the Economic Development Department and its functions and structures, a summary of services, and descriptions of the classes of records held. Brief summaries of administrative manuals, policies, rules and guidelines are also provided.

Under the Act, Bermudians and Bermuda residents have the right to request and have access to any record held by a public authority, other than an exempt record. Some records fall within Part 4 of the Act, such as information received in confidence pursuant to Section 26 and information related to the deliberative process pursuant to Section 29. Therefore, not all records can be accessed. This information statement clarifies these categories of information where required.

Section A: Structure, Organization and Legislation [s5(1)a]

Mission :

The Mission of the EDD is to advance the sustainable growth, development and diversification of Bermuda's economy.

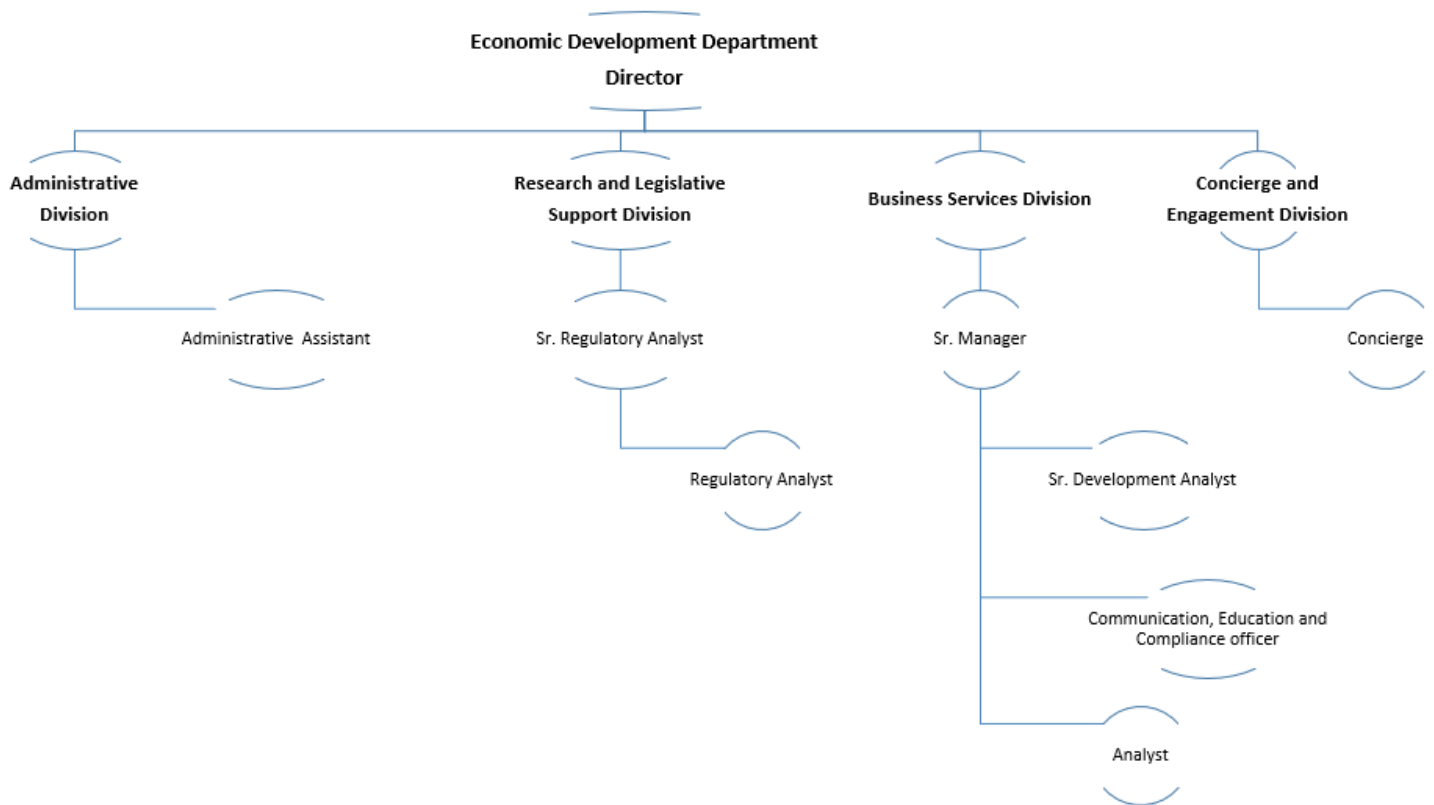

Objectives:

It will do so by achieving the following objectives:

- Facilitate, create, and implement policies to support the Government Economic Recovery Plan.
- In collaboration with industry stakeholders, position Bermuda as an ideal test market for innovative product and industry development.
- Analyse innovative developments and trends through research and stakeholder engagement.

- Identify the jurisdiction’s market fit, clearly communicate its message and drive opportunities that lead to economic activity.
- Identify, develop and implement policy and legislative initiatives that generate industry confidence.

Organisational Chart:

The Department is divided into five sections which each has its own functions and services as follows:

- Business Services Division: Solidifies relationships with inbound interest as guided by the Economic Development Strategy. It is also responsible for:
 - the Incentives for Job Makers and the Alien Land Licensing processes.
 - Communications, Education and Compliance initiatives.
 - the Approved Residential Scheme.
- Concierge Services and Engagement Division: Provides concierge services to Bermuda's inbound investors by streamlining and expediting government processes.
- Research, Legislative Support Division: Assists with public and private legislative initiatives that are intended to improve the Government’s product and service offerings.

Legislation:

1. Electronic Transactions Act 1999

2. The Standard for Electronic Transactions 2000
3. Economic Development Act 1968
4. Bermuda Immigration and Protection Act 1956
5. Bermuda Immigration and Protection (Land-Holding Charges) Regulations 2007
6. Bermuda Immigration and Protection (Licence Applications) Regulations 2007
7. Bermuda Immigration and Protection (Minimum Annual Rental Values) Regulations 2008
8. Bermuda Immigration and Protection (Rental and Use) Regulations 2007
9. Bermuda Immigration and Protection (Tourist Accommodation and Hotel Residences) Regulations 2010
10. Bermuda Immigration and Protection (Territorial Restrictions) Regulations 2007

The EDD is also subject to any and all laws that apply to the Government generally.

Section B: 1) Functions, powers, duties of the Authority [s5(1)b]

The EDD aims to create new economic pillars in Bermuda, starting with the identification of new opportunities for economic diversification and subjecting them to structured analysis and research. Once areas have been identified and agreed upon, the EDD seeks local and overseas investment to develop new local industry, aiming to create jobs in Bermuda¹.

The Director of the EDD reports to the Permanent Secretary for the Ministry of Economy and Labour.

Decisions made in the EDD are based on research, stakeholder feedback, industry needs, partnerships, and departmental objectives set out by the Ministry of Economy and Labour. They are guided by Government processes and procedures and by relevant codes of conduct.

Some of the EDD's core functions are specifically focused on activities related to international business. As such, the EDD assists with the following functions:-

1. Legislative Change –To position Bermuda as a globally-recognised, business-friendly jurisdiction. The EDD initiates innovative legislative initiatives to create an environment that is conducive to the growth and diversification of corporate products and services. Through active collaboration with industry focus groups, such as the Bermuda Business Development Agency, and engagement with industry stakeholders, government departments, and the Bermuda Monetary Authority, the EDD aims to drive progressive legislative change and elevate Bermuda's status as a preferred jurisdiction for international business.
2. Intelligence Gathering and Reporting – The EDD reports to the Minister of Economy and Labour and the Permanent Secretary on matters that either impact or have the potential to impact Bermuda's economy. The EDD also supports the work of the E-Commerce Advisory Board (ECAB), a statutory board created under the Electronic Transactions Act 1999 (ETA) and intended to advise the Minister about matters relating to e-commerce in Bermuda. ECAB delivers reports to the Minister responsible for e-commerce.
3. Government Liaison for BDA – The Director of the EDD serves as the Government liaison to the BDA and is a member of the BDA board. The EDD assists the BDA as needed with regards to sharing information and facilitating communication between the BDA and various government entities.

4. Concierge Services & Engagement – The EDD provides a Concierge Service for international companies considering registering a business in Bermuda. The EDD serves as the principle point of contact to assist companies with Government-related issues (work permit questions, Companies Act 1981 approvals, tax queries, applications for company registrations, etc.) The EDD also enables expedited processing of applications for business registrations, work permits, payroll tax and social insurance accounts.
5. The EDD also facilitates meetings with Government departments and officials to ensure that parties interested in Bermuda are informed of applicable policies and procedures and that the Government is properly informed of any proposed business activities.
6. Other Projects related to Economic Development – The EDD may, from time to time, be tasked with projects intended to stimulate job creation and economic development in Bermuda.
